Crediting The Various Reports
Daytona Entertains Her Full Share of Tourists.

VERY QUIET AT SOME PLACES.

Judging from reports coming from the various resorts of Florida the present tourist season is something out of the ordinary. Most of the North Florida resorts think the "run" a little light and it seems to be the consensus of opinion that tourists are doing the unexpected—going first to Cuba, the West Indies and to the extreme South and working back by easy stages.

George H. Munroe has just returned from St. Augustine where he went on some business and he reports the old town quieter than Pinewood, and the people up there are anything but optimistic.

Daytona has no kick coming. She got a big delegation unusually early and became over confident. She is perceptibly ahead of former seasons but hasn't the big crowd that early arrivals seemed to promise.

Undoubtedly there are more automobiles here now than were ever here before so early in the season and the automobile and aeroplane carnival billed for the last of March, guarantees their stay here and also that they will be joined by many others as the season advances.

Some few of the hotels are now entertaining guests to the limit of their capacity and all are showing increased patronage day by day.

An excellent barometer which serves to show the presence of the tourist is the postoffice. Postmaster Smith says his sale of stamps is running ahead of previous years.

The High School shows several more pupils than were in attendance at this time last year.

A speeding touring car in a twelve minute run to Port Orange yesterday afternoon met fifteen automobiles. All these "straws" serve to show that Daytona is abreast of the procession, and then some.

There is no disputing the fact that Daytona's incomparable beach and her magnificent driveways are the chief attractions that draw and hold the lion's share of the tourist travel.

Runaway Accident.

About noon Sunday while Gas Lind-burg was driving in his yard on South Beach street the horse apparently frightened at the flowing well and in moving ran the buggy against a hitching post, throwing Mr. Lindburg out. The horse then ran up Beach street until near Bellevue avenue when the vehicle struck a palmetto tree and the horse was loose, being captured a little further north on Beach street.

It was at first thought that Mr. Lindberg had sustained serious injuries and Dr. J. E. Rawlings was called, but found nothing beyond a temporary strain of the back, and Mr. Lindberg, though somewhat sore, was at work again Monday morning.

The buggy had a wheel smashed and received some minor damages.

PRESIDENT OF THE MINE WORKERS

Presents His Annual Report To Miners' Association And Tries To Justify Himself.

ABSENCE OF "FIRE" IN REPORT.

[By United Press.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 19.— President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, presented his annual report today to the Miners' Convention. The report did not contain the expected "fire." Lewis requests an investigation of his acts and loudly points to the fact that this is the first time in the history of the miners' organization when they were not demoralized during an industrial depression. The strike in the Mercer district of Pennsylvania, Lewis dismisses with the assertion that he did not encourage it for five reasons, any one of which is sufficient.

MRS. STANLEY IS DYING.

At the time of going to press Mr.
Mary L. Stanley of South Palmetto avenue, is not expected by her physician.
Dr. Stewart, to live through the day.
Mrs. Stanley came to Daytona 26 years ago from Colorado Springs, is 84 years old, and is survived only by a daughter-in-law.

THE SULTAN COMPLAINING.

[By United Press.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 19.—An official admission was made today that Sultan Abdul Hamid is indisposed. The government officials announce that the ruler's illness is not alarming, but the people suspect he is in a serious condition however.

ARRESTED IN OKLAHOMA

GUTHRIE, Okla., Jan. 19.—The case of Scott Reynolds, the New York attorney, arrested last night on a warrant sworn out by Gov. Haskell charging conspiracy, was continued until Monday.

Sign This Petition.

A petition to be presented to the Railroad Commission, asking for better depot accommodations at Daytona, will be found at the City Clerk's office during this week for the signatures of interested citizens.

SPRITLY OCTOGENARIAN AT THE TROY HOUSE.

Morton Reed Passes 88th Milestone And Looks Good For Many Years More.

"Mort" Reed, as his older friends are wont to call him, was the cynosure of all eyes yesterday at the Troy House.
A friend recalled the fact that he was to number another milestone, so his friends took the "tip," prepared surprises for him, and made a celebration of his 88th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Hotchkiss sent him a huge cluster of eighty-eight magnificent roses from Silver Beach; the Italian string band serenaded at the noon hour; at supper the ladies presented him with a sky-scraper layer cake, something less than eighty-eight layers, and with twenty-one brightly burning candles surmounting it, indicating that he is as bright and sprightly as most boys when they attain their majority. In the evening the festivities were concluded in the parlor with music, speechmaking and various felicitations.

Here is a striking exemplification of that scripture, which says, "Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long," etc.

Note the fact, too, that Mr. Reed has abstained strictly from all use of tobacco and intoxicants; he retires early, rises early, eats well and exercises regularly.

What a beautiful thing to grow old so gracefully, and to retain one's mental and physical faculties with seemingly so little wear. His vigor of both mind and body are most remarkable, and his host of friends sincerely wish they may meet for many winters to come under circumstances so pleasant, and when the summons finally does come, as it must come for all, may the answer be prompt and cheerful, "Ready."

P. J. KIERNAN IS RUN IN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Patrick J.
Kiernan, for whom the police have been searching since December 9, because of peculiar manipulations of the funds of the Fidelity Funding Company did not arrive in New York this morning, as he told the police of Pittsburgh last night he would do. Kiernan surrendered to the Pittsburgh authorities last night and gave bond.

IN HONOR OF ROBERT E. LEE.

This is a holiday but few are observing it. The postoffice is closed, but other houses are transacting business as usual.
All Virginians in the Daytona district are mindful of the event. It is the anniversary of the great Southern General's birth.

In many places the date is an occasion for elaborate exercises and eulogies upon the life and character of the dead chieftain.

DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL GOES STILL FARTHER AHEAD.

Race Getting Closer Outside of Daytona—Don't Forget The Due Bills.

The latest count in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest shows the standing the same, with the exception of one place in Daytona, namely, Miss McCann passed the Daytona Institute.

The Daytona High School made a gain of about 75,000 over the Halifax Rifles, but their lead is not clinched yet.
Something may happen any day, or a rich Rifle may furnish his home and pay the bill. Who knows? The Eastern Star made a slight gain on the Rifles.

Outside of Daytona, Wilman's opera house is still going ahead, but after that there is a noticeable lightening in the race. Four candidates are bunched within twenty thousand votes for second place. Some race there.

But don't forget the due bills. They are valuable. Altogether, there are sixteen due bills, ranging from $25 to $200 in value. Eight of these go to the candidates in Daytona, eight outside of Daytona. Work for these due bills. If you ever wish to purchase a Howard piano these due bills will be as good as real money. Make up your mind to get a due bill.

On Hunting and Fishing Trip.

E. M. Holman, Fred Lundy, Charles Seibert, Jim Stubbord and Conrad Stubbord, senior and junior, left this morning for a several days' hunting and fishing trip at Eldora, aboard the Stub-bord cruising yacht Ernestine. This boat, since her recent remodeling, is most completely arranged for trips of this kind, and as the party was provided with all the necessities and many of the luxuries for a successful outing they will no doubt give a good account of themselves on their return.

BURGOYNE DROPS IN $500 BY WIRE

"W. H. Peters, Daytona: Chip in $500 For Me Toward The Automobile Races.

MAILED CHECK. C. G. BURGOYNE."

Such was the announcement handed out from the electric tickers at the Western Union office last night, and Mr.
Peters' face broadened into a smile of satisfaction, which spread to many other faces as the word was passed along Beach street.

So handsome and generous a contribution dropped into the lap of solicitors wholly unexpected and unelicted, was sufficient justification for a little ecstatic burst of enthusiasm in which many citizens, taking a lively interest in the progress of the race carnival, will join.

Mr. Burgoyne has expressed no purpose of being present at the races this year, though his Daytona friends would give him a royal welcome, and would rejoice to see a little Burgoyne activity up Beach street, as of old. His liberal donation shows that down deep in his make-up (this is a good printer's term) there is a tender spot for the picturesque little city on the Halifax By-the-Sea, and while he is looking on from a far and sees her citizens trying to boost an enterprise against some odds, the inclination to come to the rescue is irresistible.

This unexpected contribution gives the race meet a decided boost, and puts the solicitors and citizens in general in fine fettle. Everything pertaining to the proposed big racing event is taking on a roscate tint, and from this on to the date for the round-up on the best beach in the world there is every indication of a good sea and of clear sailing.

If a score or so of the "grillinaires" had come down with the coin in chunks of 5 C's at a clip, instead of contributions that "looked like 30c," there would have prevailed a better feeling from the beginning.

A rising vote of thanks to the Commodore, and may his shadow never grow less.

NOW TURKEY IS QUAKING.

SMYRNA, Asiatic Turkey, Jan. 19.— A heavy earthquake occurred here and at several nearby towns today. Several deaths are reported. Loss of property at Checca and Memnon is known to be considerable. Battleships in the vicinity are uninjured.

A REMARKABLE SEASON FOR GREENS.

The Truck Gardens In Western Suburbs A Feast For
The Eye.

A LOOK IN ON LEON DESPLAND.

It is well worth a trip out almost any street into the western suburbs to see the flourishing condition of the truck patches.

A Daily News man took a stroll out Magnolia avenue and found Leon Des-pland looking a typical "hayseed," well bronzed and hard at work. Mr. Des-pland and helpers were picking and grading strawberries and they had some as handsome fruit as the Daily News man ever saw. It was large, rich in color and of delightful flavor.

Mr. Despland is growing a berry he calls the Klondike, with which he is greatly pleased. A large patch set a little less than three months ago show up exceedingly well and are bearing abundantly of choice fruit. He was shipping it at 75c per quart.

He exhibited with pride another patch, the variety not yet named, which has not yet been set quite six weeks and he is getting a sprinkling of berries from it also. This is a remarkable showing and an achievement few besides Mr. Des-pland could accomplish.

He has thrifty and promising patches of onions, lettuce, celery, cabbage, cauliflower, turnips, carrots, etc.

The visitor discovered that Mr. Des-pland is quite a chicken fancier and his premises were noisy with cackles and cock-a-doodle-dos. He had over 700, about 300 of which ranged in size from newly hatched up to broilers.

He is partial to the Rhode Island Reds. He thinks they are the best winter layers for Florida and he is selling all the eggs he gets at 50c per dozen. He has some very handsome pens of the showy red birds.

It is men of Mr. Despland's enterprise, executive ability and resourcefulness who will reclaim the Florida waste places and demonstrate their fruitfulness.

RUFUS H. THAYER, NEW JUDGE AT SHANGHAI.

Judge Rufus H. Thayer, who succeeds Judge Lebbeus R. Willey in the United States court at Shanghai, China, was appointed from Washington. He has been a practicing lawyer there for many years and is highly regarded by the president and members of the cabinet. His position in China will be a trying one, for complications are constantly arising between Americans and the Chinese and other foreigners there. Judge Willey's administration was fraught with much turmoil, and he declared the office one of the hardest to fill in the judiciary service of the United States.

SEABREEZE, Jan. 19.—The H. G.
Wilson Co. yesterday closed a deal with Frank W. Coale, of Baltimore, for the purchase of lots 5 and 6, block 36, Atlantic avenue. Mr. Coale will erect a fine residence on the property.

Mrs. Taylor and niece, of Rochester, N. Y., have engaged rooms with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Abercrombie, on Valley street, and are expected to arrive some time this week.

Sunday afternoon a Daily News reporter had the pleasure, in company with a friend, of walking through the grounds of J. W. Erregger's home residence, on Valley street. Everything showed evidence of the best care and cultivation.
Roses were in the perfection of bloom; a handsome oleander hedge was bursting into blossom; several magnificent live oaks lent dignity and beauty to this tropical garden, but what most surprised us was the banana bushes, full giants of growth, many in the bud and blossom and others fruiting in an advanced stage of growth, some of which are of the finer varieties, known as the kid glove and lady finger varieties. The frequent rains and mild temperature of the season since October has been most favorable to all growing things. We walked down the new pier and examined the new boat house which Mr. Erregger has just had completed. It is splendidly built, and his boat, newly painted, was ready for service.

Mrs. Punderson and two daughters, Carolyn and Dorothy, of St. Paul, Minn., are the first arrivals at The Glenwood under the new management.

J. B. Uebelhoefer, a retired lumber merchant of Buffalo, N. Y., who is spending the winter at Daytona Beach, closed a deal yesterday for a lot on the beach near the Country Club, through I. A.
Miller. Mr. Uebelhoefer will build a winter home on this property, he having a summer residence at Oconomowoc, Wis.

Judge J. B. Richardson and wife, of Trenton, N. J., Henry Norris and two daughters, Misses Ada G. and Ella D.
Norris, of New York City, Mrs. Jackson and daughter, of Canada, are guests at Princess Ismena.

Mrs. Thayer and Mrs. Anderson, of West Virginia, came over from Daytona yesterday and will spend the winter at The Mayfield. This is their second season with Mrs. Rankin.

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 19.—Will Jordan and Chas. Clary, prominent hotel men of Arlington, Maine, who are here for their health, have made steady improvement since their arrival. Mr.
Clary says no one could remain sick in such a climate.

Mrs. Albert Todd, who has been under Dr. T. A. Davis' treatment for several weeks, moved home yesterday, where she will spend the remainder of the season.

At a recent council meeting Theodore Carter was granted a building permit to erect a barn on his premises. At the same meeting warrants were drawn for $162.50, interest on outstanding bonds.

Marion Moore, grandson of Mrs.
Sprague, arrived last week and will spend some time with his grandmother.
Marion has just graduated from the High School at Binghamton, N. Y.

H. E. Nasbaum and wife, Owasco, Mich.; H. H. Nasbaum and wife, Middlebury, Ind., are recent arrivals at the White House, which holds its own against all odds, for popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Balkwell, of Cleveland, Ohio, were at Daytona Beach a few hours yesterday looking after the completion of his brother's houseboat.

Mr. and Mrs. Balkwell leave today for Titusville, and other points further south. They were guests of The Bennett while in Daytona.

Mrs. S. H. Rogers has leased the Jackson house, adjoining Surf Crest on the South for the accommodation of the overflow of guests.

Mr. Brodt, who has been at Surf Crest most of the season, left Saturday afternoon for a week's visit at Cocoa. He returned yesterday afternoon, and thinks Daytona Beach is good enough for him.

Miss Perkins, the gifted pianist who is spending the winter at Daytona, was visiting friends at the Seaside Inn yesterday.

Dr. M. V. Young and wife are enjoying their stay in the Field cottage, on Bath street. In company with Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Fowler and Mr. and Mrs.
Kreusch, they enjoyed a delightful outing at New Smyrna one day last week.

The Modern
 Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
 One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one, who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perching fat mullet, and that fish hawk sittling upward with his thundering load he snatched from the water.
 See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous ferns which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
 Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
 Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
 It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

When Waking Up.
Here is a bit of information that will pay you to keep ready for reference, though you will perhaps turn up your nose at it at the first reading: "How to wake up and wake up fully and quickly. Most people prefer not to wake up in the morning—that is, they think of the pleasure there would be in just five minutes' more of sleep if only that alarm clock had not sounded its warning. Of course you have to get up, and if there is really anything that will make the job easier and more pleasant you will want to know about it. Doctors have long ago agreed that dullness on first awakening in the morning is due to sluggish circulation of the blood in the brain. This can be quickly overcome by massaging the neck in the neighborhood of the jugular vein, thus stirring the blood to life and action. Rub your neck well on both sides and drowsiness will leave you. Try it."—New York Times.

Happy Either Way.
The old Duke of Norfolk, who was a very shabby dresser, met a privileged friend in Bond Street, London. Said the privileged friend, a military man of the premier duke's own age: "Why, duke, what's come to your clothes? You look as if you had raked over your rag bag to find them!" The duke replied, with a shrug: "What does it matter what I wear here? No one knows me!" A few months later the same friend, himself always a well-dressed man, met the duke again, pottering about in the neighborhood of Arundel, the delightful Sussex village under a hill crowned by the castle from whose name the eldest son of a Duke of Norfolk always takes his "courage" title—Earl of Arundel. "Why, duke," said his friend again, "what's the matter with your clothes?" The duke shrugged his shoulders again. "What does it matter what I wear here? Every one knows me!"

German Lotteries.
In an article on the lotteries the Berliner Tageblatt says there are three ways by which wealth is acquired—by work, which is long and tedious; by dishonesty, which is a precarious proceeding, and by gambling. The number of persons who prefer the last named method, says the writer, is large in the German realm, for there the great lotteries thrive best. There are seven of these under the management of the government, and they distribute $100,000,000 in prizes. The anxiety to secure a part of this amount has destroyed the happiness of thousands of households and has diverted thousands of good men from honest industry and thrift to idleness and poverty. In the seven lotteries there are about 22,000 winners a year, but of these only about 650 receive prizes of more than 1,000 marks each.

The Rice God.
In the Malay peninsula, after a general proprietary service has been held as an "apology" to the rice for cutting it, the "rice god" is diligently sought. First the spot where the best rice grows is selected; then seven stems are chosen, each having seven joints. Within this sacred bundle resides the soul of the whole precious field, and dressed in swaddling clothes like a live infant, it is borne home in a basket and tenderly, reverently, placed on a new sleeping mat.

After the rice harvest in Ceylon the priests take a little old god called Maredi down to the river. A hole is dug where the water is shallow, and into this is crammed a bag of dry rice with the god placed on top. The saturated rice expands, forcing the image upward, so that in about fifteen days it comes to the surface and is welcomed as a new god with acclamations of great joy.

Both in China and Japan are held special festivals of thanksgiving and offering up of first fruits.—Los Angeles Times.

Luck In Golf.
Luck, as will readily be understood, is a factor that enters very largely into golf. Perhaps the most notable case on record is that of Jamie Anderson when competing for the championship at Prestwick in 1878. He had just teed his ball for the seventeenth drive when a little girl standing among the spectators remarked that he had unconsciously placed it just in front of the proper line. Although nobody else had noticed the fact, this proved on examination by the referee to be correct. Thereupon Anderson teed his ball again in a fresh position well behind the line and made a drive which landed him in the hole and eventually enabled him to win the match. If, however, he had played it from the original spot he would have been penalized a stroke and have lost the championship. Clearly, then, luck on the links is something to be taken into consideration whatever nonbelievers may say to the contrary.—Bailey's Magazine.

Walking on Your Hat.
"Nothing is wasted in this house" is the proud remark which you may often hear from the lips of an expert housekeeper. It is a boast, however, that few people could really justify. Take the case of a worn-out derby hat. In the majority of instances this discarded article of headgear finds its way to the rubbish heap or perhaps into the hands of a passing tramp. If only people were aware of the fact, the most excellent felt soles for the inside of their boots and slippers are thus being discarded. These soles can be cut from the sides of an old hat and are much more comfortable than the ordinary cork ones.

A Couple of Blackbirds.

Henry White, a black man, commonly known as "Shorty," was before Justice H. T. Titus, Monday morning, charged with stealing a bicycle from G. P. Johnson, of Daytona Beach, and forging an order for provisions at one of the stores in that town. He was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $500, and, failing bond, was taken to DeLand, Monday afternoon, by ex-Sheriff J. R. Turner, who was returning to his home at the county seat. Gad Taylor, the colored marshal made the arrest. While waiting for the train another black man by the name of Brown, surrendered himself, and was hand-cuffed to White to be taken to DeLand and turned over to the authorities at Live Oak, where he was wanted in regard to some bond-jumping case.

Messrs. Hand, Milligan, Hough and Malby, returned Sunday evening from their several days hunting and fishing trip at Eldora, in Mr. Malby's launch "Teal." They bagged some ducks and a quantity of fish including a number of fine sheephead.
